Clean Comedy That Fills the Room - and Funds the Mission

Atlanta comedian Coop D. Veal is now booking corporate celebrations, conferences, and “Comedy for a Cause” fundraisers - one headliner who makes the whole company laugh, and helps organizations raise money doing it.

ATLANTA, GA. - Award-winning comedian Coop D. Veal, known for clean, original, workplace-ready comedy, is opening his calendar to corporate events and fundraisers nationwide. Event planners get a proven headliner whose act is safe for the entire organization. Nonprofits, churches, social organizations, and companies raising money for a cause get something just as valuable: a night of comedy people actually want to buy a ticket to.

That combination is rare. Plenty of comedians are funny. Far fewer can work a room that includes the CEO, the newest hire, longtime clients, and everybody's plus-one - and leave every one of them laughing, with nothing the organizer has to apologize for on Monday morning. That is the room Coop D. Veal has been working for decades.

Built for the corporate room

Coop turns the everyday life of work - the meeting that could have been an email, the road, the office itself - into the highlight of the event. His sets are built for company celebrations, conferences, banquets, staff appreciation events, and holiday parties, in 15-, 30-, and 45-minute formats, with hosting available. Everybody is in on the joke, nobody is the punchline, and the whole place leaves lighter than it came in.

“I don’t have to be dirty to be funny, and I don’t have to tear anybody down to lift a room up. Clean, original, on point - that’s the promise. You bring the people, I’ll bring the laughter, and we’ll send everybody home better than they came.”

- COOP D. VEAL

A fundraiser people want to attend

Comedy for a Cause is Coop's fundraiser show for corporations, social organizations, and nonprofit organizations raising money for themselves. The model is simple: the organization brings the crowd, Coop brings a full clean set the whole audience can enjoy, and the ticket sales, sponsorships, and goodwill go where they belong - to the organization and the work it does. A comedy night is one of the easiest fundraisers to fill, because it does not feel like an ask. It feels like a night out.

FEATURED SHOW - COMEDY FOR A CAUSE

Laugh Don't Shoot

At the heart of Comedy for a Cause is Laugh Don't Shoot - comedy with a message, aimed at the issues hitting communities hardest: senseless gun violence, substance abuse, domestic violence, and the school-to-prison pipeline.

Coop spent years as a juvenile probation officer and has seen that pipeline from the inside. He knows laughter opens doors that lectures cannot - so the show makes people think while it makes them laugh, and gives sponsors and media a reason to pay attention.

Why Coop is not just another booking

Coop D. Veal is a headliner with a story. He was the last comedian to open for the late Godfather of Soul, James Brown, warmed up audiences for Tyler Perry's Meet the Browns, performed on BET's ComicView, and appeared on The Real Housewives of Atlanta in 2022. Crowds ask for his signature character by name: Rev. Charles, the poorest preacher in America - "Don't mail me no money, just call me and I'll come and get it." He also hosts the podcast University of Funny with Coop D. Veal and wrote Funny Jokes & Stories to Take Your Mind Off Serious Stuff!, Volume One.
